*In Hours of Discouragement God Is Our Encouragement
A Loving Thank You*

My father God I thank you for allowing me to share seventy-five years with my magnificent family and friends. They all were very precious living jewels that you gave me God to make my life complete.

My departure day was so sudden and my joyous visit on earth it came to an end. I didn't have a chance to say goodbye, but I am living with Jesus now so don't you cry. Thank you for coming together to bid me farewell. I want all of you to know that I loved you and that I appreciated you more than mere words can ever tell.

To my precious loving husband James, I love you so very deeply and I am so glad that I married you. As we shared the joys and sorrow of life for so many years, God knitted our hearts together in love so strong that only death could separate us and we kept our sacred vows until death do us part. My Darling, you were my very best friend and I love you with all my heart, please don't cry. I will be waiting for you beyond the sky.

I Love You

Order of Service

To my precious children, Mary Ellen, Barbara, Thomas, Kay, Beverly, Donald, and Arnold, you each were precious gift from God and I cherish all of you. I will live on through each one of you in your hearts and mind. I hope each of you will faithfully live in Jesus Christ.

To my precious Grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren, I loved each of you in my very own special way.

To my adoring and wonderful relatives and friends, you all were the best family and friends in the world I love all of you dearly.

To my pastor and church family, I want to thank each of you for blessing my life; and when you think of me don't be sad because we will see each other again. May the Lord bless thee and keep thee

I Love You

-St. John 11:23-26-

Order of Service

When God made mothers, he made the world a better place by far, we know that's true because of you and all of the wonderful things you are.

Mother, there's a lot of pride in every thought of you and there's a lot of thankfulness for all of the nice things that you do.

Mother always understand it's just their way, I guess they always know our deepest thoughts, all the things we cannot express and mother today, we are hoping that you'll know in some small part.

The loving thoughts behind this poem that comes straight from my heart. This poem is just a tribute to the sweet and thoughtful way that has always made you mother, much too dear for words to say...

A Million Times

*A million times we needed you,
A million times we cried.
If love could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we love you still;
For in our hearts you hold a place
That never can be filled.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For a part of us went with you
The day God took you home.*

Organ Prelude

I Said A Prayer For You Today

Processional

I said a prayer for you today

Scripture

And know God must have heard-

Prayer

I felt the answer in my heart

Selection

Although He spoke no word.

Acknowledgements of Telegrams,
Condolences and Words of Reflection

I didn't ask for wealth or fame,

I knew you wouldn't mind,

I asked Him to send treasures

Of a far more lasting kind.

Remarks (2 minutes Please)

I asked that He'd be near you

At the start of each new day

To grant you health and blessings

And friends to share your way.

Eulogy Rev. Michael Coleman

I asked for happiness for you

In all things great and small-

But it was for his loving care-

Organ Postlude

I prayed for most of all.

I am the resurrection and the life; he who believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever loveth and believeth in me shall never die.
