I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss oh yes,
These things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much,
I traveled the world,
Good friends, good times
Loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God
Wanted me now;
He set me Free.....

Obituary

Andrea Kaye Honeysuckle (fondly known as Anndrea Kaye to all) was born to the late Sarah Ware and Walter Honeysuckle on December 02, 1951. Anndrea gave her life to Christ at a very young age. Anndrea attended Kentucky Public Schools and was an outstanding student. During her high school years, she participated in many activities in preparation for college. After graduation from Holmes High School in Kentucky, Anndrea enrolled in the University of Cincinnati. Anndrea graduated from UC with a Bachelor's of Science in Sociology.

Highly intelligent, Anndrea was known for her quick wit and knowledge of Black History. Anndrea had a true desire for traveling the world along with her dear friends. She loved art, black history, and education. Shortly after graduating from college, Anndrea moved to Detroit, Michigan following her passion for social work. She pursued a 30 year career with the State of Michigan. Anndrea was an avid traveler throughout her life completing several missionary trips to Africa. Anndrea was compassionate, loving and laidback. Her kindness and understanding nature caused Anndrea to never meet a stranger. Those remaining to cherish her memories included countless friends. She is survived by a large and loving family.

"Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. . . ." -Psalm 23:4

I Have A Place In Heaven

Please don't sing sad songs for me, forget your grief and fears.
For I am in a perfect place, away from pain and tears.
I have a place in Heaven with the Master at my side.
To walk with God is Perfect Peace, a joy forever new!
