Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Celebrating Her Life

Ebonie Michelle Roseman crossed over from this life to her eternal life on Tuesday, August 16, 2022, at the age of 44. Her zest for life and infectious personality will continue to live on through her family and friends.

Ebonie Michelle Roseman was born to Ranee Roseman and Claudette Sullivan Roseman on September 22, 1977. She will be remembered by her Mother, Claudette Sullivan Ellison; Brother, Duane Roseman Sr., (Bridget); Aunts, Marvie Sullivan, Denese Graves, Jennifer Roseman; Karen Roseman-Harris (Cecil), and Sandra Roseman; uncles, Tim Sullivan and Ortugas Roseman; her nieces, Brielle Roseman and Sydney Roseman; her nephews: Duane Roseman Jr and Anthony Duane Roseman; two important cousins in her life, Regina Sullivan and Derrick Roseman (Susan); and a host of close cousins and extended family. She was preceded in death by her father, Ranee Roseman.

Ebonie graduated from Roger Bacon High School in 1995. Ebonie was very passionate about making a difference in the medical field and enrolled at Northern Kentucky University after high school. While at Northern Kentucky University, Ebonie became a member of Delta Sigma Theta and was very active in their local chapter at Northern Kentucky University. To further her aspirations in the medical field, Ebonie received her Paramedic Certification from Cincinnati State Technical and Community College.

In 2003, Ebonie relocated to Atlanta, Georgia and landed a prestigious paramedic job along with being a 911 operator at a major hospital in Atlanta, Georgia. It was Ebonie's lifelong dream to serve her community as a paramedic and help anyone in need of medical attention. Ebonie always had a flare for fashion and that looking your best exemplifies the best of who you are.

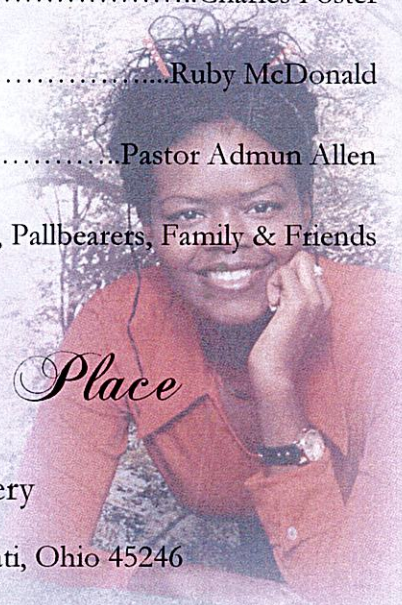

Ebonie gave her life to Christ at the age of 14 and walked in the purpose and destiny set before her by God for 44 years. While we miss her and are grateful for the time we shared with her in this life, there is no greater life, than life shared with our Heavenly Father and we give her this day to spend eternal life with our Lord and Savior. This is not goodbye, but rather see you later and rest in paradise Ebonie!

Don't cry because your sad for me but be happy because I am free!
