IN MEMORY OF

MRS. BLANCHE ORR WEATHERBY
OBITUARY

ORDER OF SERVICE

Death Is The Gateway To Eternal Life

*Death is just another step along life's changing way
No more than just a gateway*

to a new and better day,

*And parting from our loved ones is much easier to bear
when we know that they are waiting* for us to join them 'There'—

For it is on the Wings of Death that the living soul takes flight

Into the 'Promise Land of God' where there shall be 'No Night'—

So death is just a natural thing,

like the closing of a door,

*As we start upon a journey
to a new and distant shore—*

And none need make this journey undirected or alone,

For God promised us safe passage to this vast and great unknown—

*So let your grief be softened and yield not to despair,
You have only pleased your loved one* in the loving Father's care.

....Be not afraid, only believe.

Mark 5:36

OBITUARY

ORDER OF SERVICE

*There is an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone
And there is the light we cannot see
Our Heavenly Father claims His own.*

MRS. BLANCHE ORR WEATHERBY was born in Covington, Kentucky on April 7, 1908. She was the daughter of the late Mr. Presley Warner Morris and Ella Grinston in Mayslick, Kentucky.

She was active in Friendly Sunday School Class. She was very active in church until she became ill.

She was a very kind, loving and warm-hearted person. She had a smile for everyone and was an inspiration to those who knew her.

She departed this life on Monday at Jewish Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky. She leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted son, William H. Orr; daughter-in-law, Wilma B. Orr; one grandson, Douglas D. Orr; devoted cousins, Mary Bell Lange of Maysville, Kentucky, Walter Holloway and Family of Flushing, New York, Mary McKissack, Diana M. *Beyond the gate our loved ones
Find happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.*
