PACKARD & CO., 58 West Fourth St., Cincinnati.

Articles that are too bulky to be sent by mail, will be forwarded by Express at purchaser's expense.

N. B. Persons, exchanging Certificates for Silver Ware, must send, in addition to the One Dollar, the following amounts for postage: 25 cents on pair Butter Knives, 25 cents on pair Napkin Rings, 35 cents on Teaspoons, 35 cents on Dessert Forks, 40 cents on Dessert Spoons, 40 cents on Table Forks, 45 cents on Table Spoons, and 45 cents on Drinking Cups.

We wish it particularly borne in mind that this is not in any respect a Lottery or Gift Enterprise, nor has it any connection whatever with the numerous schemes that have from time to time flourished and fattened on the credulity of the public. Our method of doing business is open and above board. We simply offer for a fixed price, articles of intrinsic value, with the probability of the purchaser obtaining an article of still greater value than represented by the purchase money. It is now eight years since we established this business in Cincinnati, and the success that has thus far attended this unparalleled enterprise, is the best guarantee of its financial fairness and success.
Great caution should be used by our correspondents in regard to giving their correct address, Town, County and State.

We invite the
